Many Hands Build a House, Many Hearts Make a School
(Matthew 7:24-27 : The Wise and Foolish Builders)

Resilience, Curiosity, Honesty, Respect, Empathy
NEWSLETTER 11—Friday 21st November 2025

As many hands build a house; many hearts make a school.

A big well done to the school council in running the cake stall this morning. All money raised will be going to their chosen charities.

Hedgehogs - have been experimenting with materials and their properties—looking at whether they were magnetic or non-magnetic and if they could find anything as squishy as playdoh.

Foxes— have started learning about the Bronze Age and have been looking at how to make a pop-up toy and designing their own pop-up toy.

Squirrels - have been learning about why we have day and night in Science and looking at cam mechanisms in DT. They have also been using noun phrases and fronted adverbials in their writing in English.

Badgers - this week we have been using direct and indirect speech in our written work as well as learning more about cam mechanisms, including experimenting with different shaped cams.

After School Club—have enjoyed Kahoot quizzes and painting this week.
