- Talk about what is happening now.
- Repeat a new word about five times in different sentences.
- Use the same word each time – for example, if you say “doggy”, do not then call it “dog”.

Building your child's sentences

- Add one or two more words to what your child says.
- Use a mixture of names, action words, describing words and so on – for example, “eat apple”, “mummy's apple”, “yummy apple”.
